

October 25

northwest
chicago symphony

michael hollan, director

Auber
Fra Diavolo

Chopin
Piano Concerto No. 2 in f minor
Anastasia Rizikov, piano

Tchaikovsky
Symphony No. 1, Op. 13 in g minor.

Featuring

Anastasia Rizikov

Anastasia Rizikov is a remarkably talented ten-year old Canadian pianist. At the age of seven she became a first place winner of the Vladimir Horowitz International Young Pianists Competition in Kiev, Ukraine, where she represented Canada. She has also won various Canadian music competitions including the most prestigious CMC competition. Last year Anastasia had a very successful recital in Moscow at the International Festival "Moscow Meets Friends", organized by Vladimir Spivakov's International Charity Foundation where she again represented Canada.

Anastasia has already appeared on the Oprah Winfrey Show, and has performed numerous solo concerts in major US cities. In May 2009 she became first place winner of The Bradshaw and Buono International Piano Competition, which was followed by a highly successful performance at Carnegie Hall. All this by the age of ten!

Sunday, October 25, 3:00 p.m.

Wilbur Wright College

Events Building Theater

Sponsored by the Wright College Cultural Events Committee

General Admission:	$12.00
Senior Citizens & Non-Wright Students:	$6.00
Wright Students:	Free